PTA Meeting

Parents, your continued involvement and participation with IAH are essential for your children's success and our existence.

There are many concerns that have been voiced to me about the future of IAH; this is also a topic of discussion with the IAH Executive Committee and the HIC Board.

Some suggestions and recommendations will be made at the upcoming PTA Meeting on Wednesday, January 15, 2003 at 6:30 pm.

Please attend!

Our student's written essays about their dreams for peace, justice, civil and human rights will be entered into the I HAVE A DREAM contest sponsored by Barnes and Noble and the Huntsville Public Library. Please fill out the entry form and return by tomorrow, Tuesday.

ONE OR TWO VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO WORK ON PLANS & ACTIVITIES FOR A SUMMER SCHOOL PROGRAM; To BE A COLLABORATION WITH SUNDAY SCHOOL, in sha Allah.

DONATIONS for the Honorarium for Dr. Sonny Hereford III are due by Tuesday morning. $50 needed. Thanks. An article about Dr. Hereford appeared in the Huntsville Times newspaper, on a Thursday two or three weeks ago in the editorial section.

Please let me know how your children are responding to the new block schedule. With more time to concentrate on subjects in a more in depth manner and with fewer changes of teachers and spaces, their understanding and comprehension should increase.

Transportation is needed for our community service day on Monday, January 20, 2003. We plan to have several stops on that day. The First Stop Homeless Center to drop off food; the Senior Citizen building the Breaking Free Mission and possibly the Jones Valley Barnes store if one of our students is a writing contest winner.
